

Paint Your House

It is not always economy to buy the cheapest, especially is this true with paint. You can buy an adulterated oil for 10c per gal. less than

Crown Linseed Oil,

and you can buy a cheap paint for 15c per gal. less than MOUND CITY PAINT. But when your house needs painting again in two years instead of 4 or 5 years, what have you gained? If you are interested come in and let us talk to you about a PURE PAINT.

MAY TRY FOR SPEAKERSHIP

A. M. Kennedy, State Representative at San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, May 3.—A. M. Kennedy, of Waco, speaker of the house of representatives during the regular session of the Thirty-first legislature, was in the city yesterday. He was here on business and pleasure.

Mr. Kennedy said that he will be a candidate for re-election to the house of representatives and may be also a candidate for re-election to the speakership. He had nothing to say about state politics. He left last night for Galveston to attend court.

WORD OF THANKS.

We, the members of Martin's Prairie camp W. O. W., Keith, Texas, take this method of expressing our sincere thanks to Bethel camp and community at large for their hospitality extended to us during the noon hour on the occasion of the unveiling of monument on May 1, and we also extend our heartfelt thanks to all Sov. Woodmen of Brazos county and elsewhere for their presence and assistance in putting on the work of the unveiling for which all will ever be remembered by the members of our camp.

Fraternally yours,
C. E. ISBELL, Con. Com.
A. J. KEITH, Clerk.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express through the columns of The Eagle our heartfelt thanks to those friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted and ministered to us during the late illness and death of our husband and son.

MRS. IDA SHAW.
MRS. J. W. SHAW.

Her Way of Putting It.

A gentleman stepping on board of an ocean bound steamer just before she started inquired of the captain where the old steward was. "Oh," replied the captain, "he was discharged some time ago." "Why did he leave?" He seemed a first rate fellow." "Well, to tell the truth, he got too big for his breeches and we had to get rid of him." This was overheard by a bright little girl, the daughter of one of the passengers on the steamer. Soon after another passenger arrived, and, after looking around, said, "I don't see the old steward. What has become of him?" "I think he was discharged," said some one. "What for?" "I know," said the little girl, "but I do not like to tell." "Oh, but you may tell me, surely," said the passenger kindly. The modest little maiden hung her head and slowly answered, "Cause his trousers were too short."

Forgot Doctor's Fee.

A former St. Mary's student, writing from Sao Paulo, in Brazil, in the St. Mary's Hospital Gazette, says: "A few days back I was giving chloroform to a patient when I felt a touch on my shoulder, and a voice said, 'The patient is very still.' I said, 'He is quiet all right,' and the voice replied: 'I am his brother; if he dies you die. I have a pistol, and there are eight of us' Here, if any one is ill, all the family collects, and they sit in the same room as the patient and watch what is done." The doctor adds, "Unfortunately, though there were eight of them, they forgot my fee."

The Difference.

Mrs. Dash—The idea of Mrs. Rash having society aspirations! Why, her father was a peddler! Mr. Dash—Yes, she's entirely too forward! She ought to hang back until people have forgotten it. Now, in your case, my dear, it was your grandfather who was a peddler.
